good stuff

but when i watch stuff like this i want to die

bc I in the made up world of Star Wars even the stars arent the limit some magical force exists that ties all living beings together and Obi Wan is actually someone, with actual achievements and a purpose to live for a philosophy to believe in a future to witness

whereas my life just sucks xd

and he is camping out there in the beautiful sunset of tatooine high in the cliffs

whereas i live the life of a wojak all this emotion just hit me in times like this

I wrote a silly program

It has a rly simple purpose: the server admin add a word to the black list and the bot has to make sure that the is no way in hell someone can post that word once its blacklisted

I made the bot super super smart

So no spaces, nor numbers for letters of symbols etc etc will work

Lets say the word "nigger" is blacklisted

Not even something like:

"N1 G43r" can sneak past

If you wanna try your creativity here is a demo version for testing

censorship_bot.exe

6.54 MB

In this format its just a simple input/output text app

Try it out if u r not spooked

I promise its just daijobu but I wont blame you if you ignore it what if you where to flip the word. do you think the bot would catch it

Operator Sadge 03/30/2021 4:23 PM

Shit

U r a genius

It has all those advance mask detecting

And I havent thought of a simple flip the word

Haha

Deleted User 04/06/2021 3:11 PM

We don't talk abt fapping like an addiction but it is and it lowers your testosterone. It's way harder to find someone to fuck when you have low-T and have unrealistic standards.

I think most virgins were dudes who watched too much porn and developed an anxiety disorder because of it.

meh it just makes me lazy more than anything. I always had the internet since I was a kid. easy, free, and always there.

That's a symptom of low-T

Do you eat a lot of protein or more carbs than protein?

honestly dont know, i know my diet almsot consist of McDs and whatever else my mother cooks.

i dont pay attention to stuff like that

I'd look into it. I lift so I try to get a lot of protein, like at least 100g from chicken or fish. It also increases testosterone. Aside from the saturated fats, french fries and cheeseburgers are mostly empty calories.

Where I'm at, it's like $8-10 for organic chicken breasts.

And tuna and salmon is pretty cheap

i will consider it, right now im just tired most of the time and overweight as hell.

I think the tiredness is probably your diet and the fapping. I promise if you eat a high protein breakfast (eggs and chicken/fish) and start doing squats every day, that sluggishness will go away. It's not your fault either, our culture promotes laziness and terrible diets.

I cut carbs completely but just replacing white bread with wheat or Ezekiel bread is good.

If you eat a lot of protein, cut down on carbs, start lifting, taking hour+ walks, and keep the fapping to a minimum, you'll probably lose at least 20 pounds in a month.

And also watching porn fucks up your brain <https://youtu.be/tfwJeHtrWNI>

Deleted User 04/06/2021 3:29 PM
Well, that's the hard part. I basically had to reprogram the way I saw masturbation. Whenever I got the urge, I would tell myself how disgusting I was and how it makes me a loser. I've heard masturbating in front of a mirror helps you realize that.

Deleted User 04/06/2021 3:32 PM
It should. Just imagine telling a woman how much you masturbate.
And porn is addictive. I'd compare the addiction to an addiction to weed.
It's not physically addictive but it's emotionally addictive. I bet you could even get withdrawals.

Deleted User 04/09/2021 11:27 PM
Not saying that, you should have the choice, but you should choose not to view it.
No this is my opinion
Porn Should Be Illegal

Deleted User 04/10/2021 1:37 AM

I don't think we should make things illegal just because they have negative consequences, just like cigarettes or alcohol, but if you're a Republican or Democrat I can see why you'd have that mindset. Imo it stimulates the economy and has just as much of a right to exist as anything else that can generate a profit.

There will always be a demand for porn and even if it's illegal, someone will supply it. CP should definitely stay illegal tho. (edited)
